TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to write an appreciation letter to the Center of Excellence International Consult (CEIC) PLC. for the professional and diligent effort in supporting the organization of the First African Forum on Cybercrime, co-organized by the Council of Europe and the African Union Commission, and partnered by a number of other international organizations.

The event took place in Addis Ababa on 16-18 October 2018 and it was attended by more than 300 participants coming from all African countries, a number of regional and international organizations and other international counterparts.

CEIC's contributed significantly to the success of the event, by providing hotel accommodations for large part of the guests, and by arranging dinners and catering services, visibility and printing materials, conference assistance and equipment, transportation service.

We were happy with event organizing service and would like to render our appreciation to Center of Excellence International Consult team and CEO, Mr. Gedion G. Jalata.

Yours Sincerely,

Matteo LUCCHETTI
